

Faith Lutheran Church - Volume 3, Issue 9 - September, 2019

In Full Swing!

September is here! And with it a host of activities at Faith! Read the newsletter today to learn how and where you can find a place (or two) to connect with others and deepen your faith.

The month begins with the Labor Day holiday on September 2. Even the church office will be closed that day. It's a good time to rest or enjoy those last activities with an extra day!

WoW! is back again! It is a fun evening complete with a prepared meal at 5:30 p.m. and worship beginning at 6:30 p.m. This year's theme is Bible Superheroes. Plan to join us each Wednesday

The first four Sundays in September Pastor Lee will teach a 4-session course on four stories from the book of Daniel. Check the bulletin to find out where the course is taught each week!

The first 3 Sundays the children will gather together for large group Sunday School. After worship, the children will be behind the worship wall for an hour of activity.

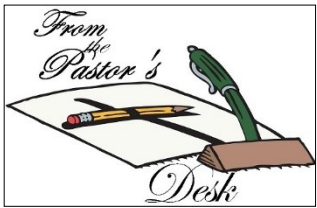

Bible Presentation Sunday is September 22. Those receiving bibles include pre-school, kindergarten, 2nd grade, and new students. This is a special gift to our children at Faith. We are thrilled they can dive in to the bible so soon!

On September 29 we welcome Dr. David Lerseth with Friends of Madagascar Mission (FOMM). He will share a message and then share the mission work in Madagascar.

The church is filled with people and activity. Thanks be to God!

Many Opportunities

Greetings, friends. How's it growing? Your faith, I mean. The month of September gives us many opportunities each week to grow deep in our faith walk with Jesus Christ. I encourage you to plug in, keep in close fellowship with Christ and the church, and continue to grow in your knowledge and love of Jesus. He calls us in love to follow and learn as His disciples.

Worship – Sunday mornings this month, we will finish the series called the Prophet's Hope. We will focus on Daniel and Ezekiel. Then, the last Sunday of the month, we welcome Dr. David Lerseth, who will share with us about mission work in Madagascar [FOMM] for a Mission Sunday. Commit your heart to worship every Sunday!

Adult Education @ 10:30 Sundays – Please come study about Daniel and the stories of God's faithfulness to His people in exile.

WoW! – Worship on Wednesday is a student-led worship time each Wednesday from 6:30 p.m. until 7 p.m. It's a great mid-week opportunity to recharge your spirit and your faith. Come at 5:30 p.m. to enjoy a family style meal and fellowship together.

Stephen Ministry – I am very excited that Faith is now a Stephen Ministry congregation. Eric Patten will be offering two weekly sessions in compassionate, caring discipleship. Even if you take the class, but decide not to "officially" become a Stephen Minister, this course will have us grow deep as disciples of Jesus, learning excellent life skills for all aspects of life.

What's your God story? – Every believer in Christ has a unique God story. What is yours? Each person's faith story is as distinct as fingerprints. This fall, we wish to refresh our commitment to be a church that invites, welcomes, and shares with others our love for Jesus. In October, Eric Patten will be teaching a Sunday morning class, "Contagious Christians." I hope that everyone will plan to take the course and feel equipped to share our "God stories" with others.

Journey Teams – Journey teams are small groups of people meeting regularly to study the Bible, study a Christian course, pray, and fellowship with one another. These faith friendships will strengthen our whole church, and empower us to carry out God's mission. Please consider starting one or joining one today!

Family and/or personal devotions and prayer – Wouldn't it be powerful if each household of Faith would commit to have daily devotions together? When a family has devotions and prays together, that is a "journey team." I encourage you to be intentional about "feeding" your faith to keep it strong.

I don't know about you, but I find food at least three times a day, usually more. Yet, how often do we feed our faith to keep it strong, healthy, and growing? Let's make use of all our opportunities at Faith to stay strong for the Lord!

See you in worship!

Missions

Mexico City Recapped

Submitted by Cindy Tigges

Thank you to our church family! Without your love and support our trip to Mexico City would not have been possible. Thank you in memory of Charin Brockshus and the Brockshus family for their generosity to provide eye glasses and medications to the extremely needy.

What an impactful trip ... as it always is. Seeing God work through our members of the team by not only taking care of the Mexican people's immediate needs but also by sharing His love was truly an experience to share. It was so amazing to have young people with us, who even though language was a barrier they worked so well with the people and never complained of the long bus rides, the no lunches and the unclean work areas.

The whole team had their hearts in the right place ... sharing God's love. I have told people, if you ever have the chance go on a mission trip and serve our Lord, do it ... it will change you forever. One of the best parts of this trip was how we were able to not only give many people their much needed eye glasses and medications but we were also able to plant a seed of faith and hope. For those that we blessed, prayed with and shared God's love, they were given the opportunity at the local church we worked at to continue to learn more about our Lord. They were given hope in an area of the world that is so poor, and in desperate need of salvation.

During our week we served along with OSI (Operation Serve International) and Zion Church the following weekly totals:

Medical: 150
Nails: 117

Optical: 264
Kids: 250

Healthcare: 56
Dental: 46

Haircuts: 104
Salvations: 120!!!!

Discipleship:
What's your next step?

Discipleship in Stephen Ministry

Discipleship... the process of walking alongside someone, helping him or her grow in a relationship with Christ. An intentional training and pouring into someone to see their roots of faith grow deeper. Like planting a flower or soybean in the spring, you take special care to help the plant grow. Sometimes that means pulling weeds around it, pouring water onto it, or adding proper nutrients to the soil.

The same thing happens with discipleship. We speak words of truth to a brother or sister in Christ where sin is creeping in. We give him or her Jesus at the right time, who is the well that never runs dry. We encourage him or her to come to church, connect into a Bible study, or keep diving deep in morning devotionals to add nutrients of life to the soul.

Finally, sometimes discipleship is caught not taught. Being Christ to someone and walking alongside with the character of Christ can be infectious and contagious. When others see Christ in you, they will want Him too.

Some of these same characteristics of ministering to others are found in Stephen Ministry. Stephen Ministry is a ministry where you intentionally walk alongside with someone as a care giver, with the hope that they will grow in Christ and find healing in Him. Jesus is the true healer of the heart, and Stephen Ministers seek to lead others to Him. Stephen Ministry is a process of discipleship, filled with compassionate care and depth of faith.

For more information about Stephen Ministry, how to become a Stephen Minister, or how to receive care from a Stephen Minister, please contact me.

Be filled with the Lord!

Stewardship at Faith

Stewards of the Month

Stan and Jodene
Jongma

Stan and Jodene Jongma are another busy pair at Faith! And they are willing to serve in any capacity! They help with fellowship, greeting, ushering, communion, serving for the banquets by the Children's Ministry team, and providing food for various events at Faith.

Well Done,
Good and Faithful Servant!

The Beauty Of Stewardship

Stewardship has to do with how we manage our time, talent, resources - basically our entire lives. It's a beautiful concept when properly understood. Here are the basics of good stewardship:

- ♦ God is the source of all creation, including our lives.
- ♦ God is the primary owner of all that exists.

We are blessed by being given the task of managing well all that we have influence over: our lives, our abilities, our minds and bodies, our time, our part of the earth, our finances, our children, our church buildings, our automobiles, etc.

Although we can make decisions regarding each of the above, ultimately we are responsible to God. Sooner or later, we must give an account of our management of God's creation and of God's gifts.

When we properly use the talents, resources and property that God allows us to manage, we find great joy. Think of planting a garden which soon overflows with colorful flowers, wonderful vegetables and flavorful herbs, etc. God gave us the plot of ground, God gave us the seed, God gave us the wisdom and strength to bring forth such beauty, such good things to see or eat, or smell. Yet we did the work, with God's help, to make it a reality. Like Adam we tilled it and kept it. But God gave the increase. God's provisions and our labor brought the garden to its fulfillment.

Good stewardship enables us to do something positive and wonderful with the money God has allowed us to have. What feels better than knowing one has managed money well? Our bank account, our checkbook and our portfolio tell the story. When money is handled well, we have enough for ourselves and are still able to give to God's work.

That is the beauty of stewardship.

Communicating Your Faith!

“This might surprise you. You’ve probably thought of communicating your faith as an important obligation, something you may feel guilty about not doing more. But until you really dive in, you won’t realize that extending Christ to others can give your relationship with Him an exciting sense of the unexpected.

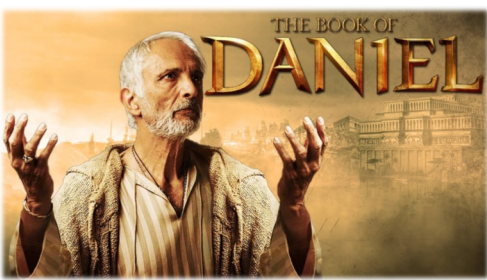

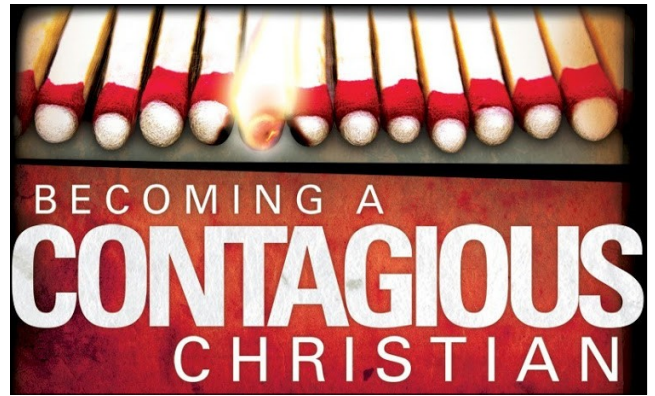

God gets great pleasure from sending His agents on secret reconnaissance missions with personal instructions no one else knows about. He loves to stretch us beyond our comfort zones and challenge us to take risks on the front lines of His kingdom-advancement enterprises. He delights in giving us action-on-the-edge where, with white knuckles, we’ll cling to Him as He takes us on the spiritual ride of our lives. The thrilling part is that He does this to help us grow as well as to spread His love to more and more wayward people.

In other words, the Christian life is one of faith, where we find ourselves routinely overdriving our headlights but knowing it’s okay because God is in control and has a purpose behind it.

Does this image excite you? If not, it might be a sign that you’ve been playing it safe in your spiritual life. Maybe it’s time to take steps toward becoming a more contagious Christian, one God can use in His exciting search and rescue mission.”

These words are an excerpt from the book, “Becoming a Contagious Christian” by Bill Hybels and Mark Mittelberg. In October, we at Faith will begin a journey of learning how to share our faith with others ... our God story. If these words strike your heart as compelling or stirring, join the adult Sunday School Class in October as we read this book over seven weeks and learn how to become a Contagious Christian!

Daniel Bible Study

In September, Pastor Lee will teach a 4-session course on four stories from the book of Daniel.

Set in the country of Babylon, Daniel teaches us important truths of faith directly applicable to our lives of faith as Christian believers today.

Plan to be a part of this 4-week study!
