

Faith Lutheran Church - Volume 3, Issue 4 - April, 2019

Welcome Spring!

April is a great month for new beginnings. We welcome baby animals and birds, those first blooming flowers, and the life-giving rains for our land. Here at Faith, we are celebrating and remembering events.

Our month begins with

New Member Orientation on April 7. Faith will welcome new members during the worship service. We are thrilled they will share the journey with us!

Palm Sunday on April 14 begins our Holy Week. We look forward to waving our palm branches as we celebrate Jesus' entrance in to Jerusalem.

Be sure to attend our Congregational Meeting after worship on April 14. The Call Committee has selected a pastor to call. Your presence for conversation and a vote is needed!

Maundy Thursday on April 17 will remember Jesus' Last Supper with the disciples with worship at 6:30 p.m. Our First Communion students and their families will share in communion with all attending that evening.

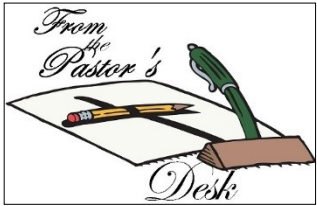

Good Friday worship on April 18 at 6:30 p.m. will include a drama sharing the perspectives of different characters of the Passion Story. Our Lord's death was difficult for so many. Come hear their view of this dramatic event.

Easter Sunday will be a day of great celebration! It begins at 7:00 a.m. with a sunrise service including communion led by Faith Youth. An Easter Breakfast at 8:00 a.m. is hosted by the confirmation youth this year. At 9:00 a.m. the Easter theme is "The Unexpected" with Holy Communion.

Let's celebrate God's victory!!!

Is the Resurrection of Jesus Fabricated?

I recently read an article by Chris Katulka, Bible teacher for The Friends of Israel Gospel Ministry. On this month when we focus on the crucifixion of Jesus on the cross, and the celebration of His resurrection from the dead, I'd like to summarize some main points from his writings.

Though most denominations of churches vary in theology, one core truth binds the whole lot together: the belief in the physical resurrection of Jesus Christ. Without the resurrection, Christ would not have been proven to be the Messiah of Israel, would not have atoned for our sins, and would not have the power to promise us eternal life. The resurrection is the central axis of the Gospel of Jesus.

Early on the day Jesus rose, Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and other women went to the tomb to complete Jesus' burial process (Luke 24:1-10). According to their testimony, when they arrived the stone had already been rolled away. They entered the tomb and two angels said, "He is not here, but He is risen!"

Interestingly, the Gospel writers placed Mary Magdalene as the first eyewitness of Jesus' empty tomb. Yet a woman's testimony in the culture of the day was never well received and often was intentionally overlooked. The disciples considered the women's witness as "idle tales, and they did not believe them." (v. 11).

If Jesus' resurrection had been fabricated, the Gospel writers would never have placed Mary Magdalene in the front row of the most significant event of human history. Instead, they would have concocted a story that would have generated more credibility.

Also, Paul, in 1 Corinthians 15, cited that Christ appeared to over 500 witnesses. These men and women were still living at the time of his writing. If the resurrection had been fabricated, Paul was opening himself to serious ridicule. Paul was inviting his readers to check his facts if they doubt his words.

Finally, almost all of the original disciples and many others who saw the resurrected Jesus, died a martyr's death. They gave their lives standing by the truth that Jesus was, in truth, resurrected from the dead. The strength of their conviction indicates that they were not just claiming Jesus had appeared to them. They willingly endangered themselves by publically proclaiming faith in the risen Christ.

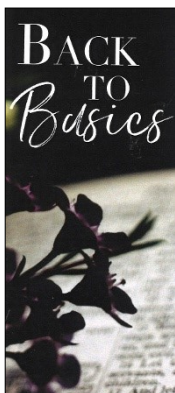

Over two thousand years later, we carry these eyewitness testimonies in our hearts. We stake our lives on the truth that Jesus not only died in our place on Calvary's hill, but that God's power raised Him from the dead, never to die again. As our risen Lord, He forgives us all and gives us the hope of eternal life. Together, we celebrate the profound truth of Easter – Jesus lives as our Savior and Lord!

In His victory,

Pastor Lee

Mission Support

The Church of Damascus Road: A Christian Community of Reconciliation

In 1996 the city of Ft. Dodge began the bidding process to have a prison located in Ft. Dodge. Local clergy were invited to participate. They submitted a description of their services to be offered. The clergy proposed the formation of a prison congregation headed by an experienced parish pastor. Ft. Dodge was awarded the prison and clergy formed a steering committee. Proposals were drawn up and represented. Approval was received and a call committee was formed. Several candidates were interviewed and in the spring of 1997, Pastor Carroll Lang was called as the Mission Developer Pastor.

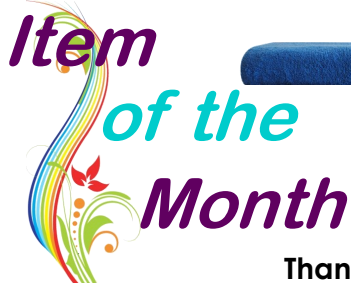

Needing a name for the church, the committee voted on "The Church of the Damascus Road: A Community of Reconciliation." Worship services would be Thursdays at the facility in Rockwell City and Fridays at the Fort Dodge facility. The first worship service was held with 24 inmates and 12 guests attending. Later bible studies began on Tuesdays.

Following Pastor Lang's retirement, the Rev. Paul Stone assumed the role as pastor. He is pastor to this day.

International Mission Trip to Mexico City!

We are going to Mexico City to share the word of the Lord! Our 2019 International Mission team, consisting of 17 people (ranging in age from 11- 55+) will be traveling to Mexico City, July 20-27, 2019.

We will travel to Mexico, to help the helpless, and change the world. We, along with OSI will provide physical and spiritual aid to the poor and destitute living in Mexico. We will help connect these people with local churches to have them be tied to support even after our team leaves.

Some of the work we will do will consist of: helping bring people to Christ, taking vitals, eye exams and fitting for glasses, pampering women with hair cuts, nails, etc, prescribing medications, giving physical exams, loving and playing with children, supplying food and so much more!

Christ who made the ultimate sacrifice said: "This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you" John 15:12. We will go to spread God's love through word and deed.

Feel called to help? Your prayers or financial support will be appreciated. Watch for the upcoming fundraising events! If you have any questions feel free to contact Eric or Cindy Tigges, ectigges@hotmail.com

Thank you for supporting the sharing of God's love as we move outside our walls!

Stewardship at Faith

Generous Christians

STEWARD OF THE MONTH: Kevin Swancutt

We are most grateful for Kevin's willingness to help Faith Lutheran on Sunday mornings.

You can find him helping set up for Sunday's coffee and donut Fellowship, he's a Scripture reader, a friendly face greeting us as we walk in the door, operating the camera that records our weekly services, or gathers the sheets we fill out for the Friendship Pads.

His ever present smile and hard work are truly appreciated!

WELL DONE! GOOD AND FAITHFUL SERVANT!

Would others say that you are stingy or generous? Would they say that you love money or that you love people? The way we use our money reflects something very important about our relationship with God.

Jesus warned, "Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal, but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven ... For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also" (Matthew 6:19-21).

It would be a great mistake, however, to think that God only has negative things to say about money. Money is a great gift that we can use for significant purposes. "Honor the Lord with your wealth and with your first fruits," says Solomon (Proverbs 3:9). Paul wrote, "Each one must give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver" (2 Corinthians 9:7).

God loves a cheerful giver because He is a cheerful giver. Jesus freely gave His life for us in love, so I encourage you to pray in these ways:

- Lord, make Christ more precious to me than all else - including money. Give me a generous heart, sharing for the needs of others. God, help me trust you at all times, especially when finances are tight. If you care for the birds of the air, then you will provide for me as well. I pray that the way I handle money would express my heart's worship of you as my Lord and Savior.

Christians gladly hold wealth loosely and give generously to the Lord. Any problem with money is rooted in the greedy human heart. The Lord gives us greater loves than money - finding greater delight in Christ. What a privilege it is, by God's rich grace, to give generously to support God's work in Christ's church.

CONFIRMATION SUNDAY! On Sunday, April 28 we will have four youth profess faith in Jesus Christ! The four kids who will boldly profess faith in Jesus as Lord and Savior are Autumn Erdman, Emily Campbell, Jada Piercy, and Reid Tigges. This is a huge moment in their faith journey. Each one of these kids had three years of Confirmation Class. After learning about the core beliefs of what it means to be a Christian, each one will profess faith to live a life following the Lord. Praise Jesus! If you see these kids, encourage them on their faith journey and continual life of following Christ and walking with the family of believers.

Why is it important that you and I profess faith in Christ? Our profession is the outward working of Christ in us. It is the heavenly call upward in Christ Jesus. It is the affirmation of our baptism. Our profession of faith are the words that share Christ to the world. Whether you profess faith in front of the congregation, in the work place, school, home, shopping center, thrift store, John Deere dealership, or wherever you may be, your profession of faith is the stand you take and tell the world that, "Jesus is the way to God, and I follow Him!"

"I am not ashamed of the Gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to all who believe- first to the Jew, and then to the Gentile." Romans 1:16
